What Is the Unique Entity ID (SAM) and When Is it Changing?

What Is the Unique Entity ID?

DUNS Number

The authoritative unique entity identifier used by the federal government today is the DUNS Number

- The DUNS Number is a 9-character numeric value
- Managed, granted, and owned by Dun & Bradstreet

DUNS 012345678

Unique Entity ID (SAM)

The authoritative unique entity identifier used by the federal government in the future will be the Unique Entity ID (SAM)

- The Unique Entity ID (SAM) is a 12-character alphanumeric value
- Managed, granted, and owned by the government

SAM ABC012345678

When is the Unique Entity ID Changing?

Unique Entity ID (SAM) is available in IAE systems

The federal government stops using the DUNS Number to identify entities

Today

- DUNS Number is the authoritative identifier
- Unique Entity ID (SAM) is available in search and display of all IAE systems, not authoritative
- Users can get a Unique Entity ID (SAM) in SAM.gov with a DUNS Number from D&B
- People who need to change legal business name, address, etc. go to D&B

On April 4, 2022

- Unique Entity ID (SAM) is the authoritative identifier
- DUNS Number is not available in IAE systems
- Users get a Unique Entity ID (SAM) in SAM.gov—the DUNS Number is no longer needed
- People who need to change legal business name, address, etc. go to SAM.gov and make the changes in SAM.gov

Why Is the Change from the DUNS Number to Unique Entity ID (SAM) Happening?

Why Is the Change from DUNS to Unique Entity ID Happening?

- Changing from DUNS to the Unique Entity ID (SAM) is a federal governmentwide initiative.
- The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) directed federal agencies to complete their transition to the Unique Entity ID (SAM) no later than April 4, 2022.

The federal government is streamlining the entity registration process and making it easier for entities to do business with the federal government.

Entities will be assigned an identifier during registration or can request one at SAM.gov without needing to register

You will not need to go to a third party to obtain an identifier or to get help.

Agency Implementation across the Federal Government

Federal agencies you do business with will provide information about how to use the Unique Entity ID in their award and payment processes.

- For example, Grants.gov has already initiated its transition.
- Go to:
grants.gov/web/grants/forms/planned-uei-updates.html

Federal agencies are managing their own Unique Entity ID transition plans.

- They will update their own:
 - Procurement award processes and systems
 - Grant award processes and systems
 - Invoicing and payment processes and systems

What Does the Unique Entity ID (SAM) Mean for Me?

What Does the New Unique Entity ID Mean for Me? (1 of 6)

I already have a SAM.gov registration.

You've already been assigned a Unique Entity ID (SAM)!

It's viewable on your entity registration record in SAM.gov.

What Does the New Unique Entity ID Mean for Me? (2 of 6)

I'm a sub-awardee NOT registered in SAM.gov and I use the DUNS Number for subaward reporting

- ❑ Request a Unique Entity ID (SAM) in SAM.gov today. A DUNS Number is still required. No registration will be required.
- ❑ Share your Unique Entity ID (SAM) with your prime(s) so they are ready to report after April 4, 2022.

What Does the New Unique Entity ID Mean for Me? (3 of 6)

I pull data and reports from IAE systems using APIs or the FPDS Atom Feed.

- ❑ Go to the source site to review the specific changes that are occurring.

The Unique Entity ID (SAM) is available now, along with the DUNS Number, in SAM.gov APIs, data extracts, and the FPDS Atom Feed.

On April 4, 2022, only the new Unique Entity ID (SAM) will be provided and the DUNS fields will go away or return blank or null values.

What Does the New Unique Entity ID Mean for Me? (4 of 6)

I search for entity and award information using the DUNS Number.

- ❑ If you have saved searches in SAM.gov that use the DUNS Number, edit those searches to use the Unique Entity ID (SAM) before April 4, 2022. If you do not change those saved searches, they will not work after April 4, 2022.
- ❑ If you have ad hoc contract data reports that use a DUNS field, you must change those reports to use a Unique Entity ID (SAM) field. If you do not update your reports, they will not work after April 4, 2022. There are instructions on how to update your reports at FSD.gov (search for “ad hoc reports UEI”).

What Does the New Unique Entity ID Mean for Me? (5 of 6)

I'm a prime awardee and I use the DUNS Number for subaward reporting in FSRS

- ❑ Get your sub-awardees' Unique Entity IDs. You can find them in SAM.gov by searching on the DUNS Number. If you cannot find it, contact your sub-awardee.
- ❑ Starting on April 4, 2022, use the Unique Entity ID (SAM) for reporting. The DUNS Number will no longer be in any system.

What Does the New Unique Entity ID Mean For Me? (6 of 6)

I'm going to register my entity in the future.

- ❑ Before April 4, 2022, go to D&B and get a DUNS Number, then go to SAM.gov to register your entity. You will be assigned a Unique Entity ID (SAM) as a part of the SAM.gov registration process.
- ❑ After April 4, 2022, go directly to SAM.gov to register, where you will be assigned a Unique Entity ID (SAM).

FAQs About the Unique Entity ID (SAM)

Is a DUNS Number the same as the Unique Entity ID (SAM)?

Answer

No, the UEI is owned and assigned by the federal government. The DUNS Number is owned and assigned by a private organization, Dun & Bradstreet.

The Unique Entity ID (SAM) is 12 characters long and alphanumeric. The DUNS Number is numeric and only 9 characters.

They are both identifiers assigned to a business or organization identifying them as unique. On April 4, 2022, the Unique Entity ID (SAM) will be the identifier used by the federal government to identify your business or organization.

Does the UEI expire?

Answer

No, once a Unique Entity ID (SAM) is assigned to your business or organization, it will not expire.

If you have a registration on SAM.gov, that expires and must be renewed each year to remain active. If your registration expires, you will still have a Unique Entity ID (SAM) assigned to your organization.

Does the Unique Entity ID (SAM) impact the CAGE/NCAGE code?

Answer

No, CAGE and NCAGE codes are completely separate from the Unique Entity ID (SAM).

I'm a prime awardee; how do I get my subs' Unique Entity ID (SAM)?

Answer

You can search entity information on SAM.gov for your sub. If they have gotten their Unique Entity ID (SAM), it will be displayed on their entity record (if their information is set to public display).

If you can't find their Unique Entity ID (SAM), reach out to your subs directly. They may need to go to SAM.gov and get their Unique Entity ID (SAM), or their information may not be publicly displayed.

I have a Unique Entity ID (SAM), but on SAM.gov, it says “not registered.” What does that mean?

Answer

Getting a Unique Entity ID (SAM) only and registration on SAM.gov are different.

Getting a Unique Entity ID (SAM) is a validation that your entity is what you say it is: a unique organization with its own physical address. “Getting a UEI” in SAM.gov refers to just that—getting a UEI only, not registration.

“Entity registration” is a more involved process where you provide certain information about your organization and get a Unique Entity ID (SAM) along the way (if you don’t already have one). “Register” in SAM.gov always refers to entity registration.

If I was awarded a grant under my DUNS Number, do I now report using my Unique Entity ID (SAM)?

Answer

Each federal agency is responsible for managing how they shift from using the DUNS Number to using the Unique Entity ID (SAM).

Reach out directly to the awarding agency for instructions on when and how to use your Unique Entity ID (SAM).

Will someone send me our Unique Entity ID (SAM)?

Answer

GSA is not contacting organizations directly about the Unique Entity ID (SAM). If you have an entity registration, active or inactive, you can sign in to SAM.gov anytime and view your entity record where the Unique Entity ID (SAM) is displayed.

If you do not have a registration, but need a Unique Entity ID (SAM), you need to go to SAM.gov, choose “Get Started,” and select the “Get Unique Entity ID” option to get a UEI.

Do I need a registration? Do I just need a Unique Entity ID (SAM)?

Answer

It's up to you and your organization. It's a business decision.

Whether to register your entity depends on whether you want to be in charge of bidding on or applying directly for awards and assistance from the government.

Register Entity

An entity registration allows you to bid on government contracts and apply for federal assistance. As part of entity registration, we will assign you a Unique Entity ID (SAM).

Comprehensive and current entity information is an essential part of the federal award process. It is important to prepare your information and allow sufficient time to understand and accurately complete your registration. You only need to complete and manage it here to remain eligible for federal awards.

You must renew your registration every 365 days for it to remain active.

Register Entity

Get Unique Entity ID (SAM)

If you only conduct certain types of transactions, such as reporting as a sub-awardee, you may not need to complete an entity registration. Your entity may only need a Unique Entity Identifier.

You can get a Unique Entity ID (SAM) for your organization without having to complete a full entity registration.

Get Unique Entity ID

Next, choose whether you need a registration or only a Unique Entity ID (SAM).

If you choose registration, you will be taken to the purpose of registration page.

If you choose to get Unique Entity ID (SAM), you will be taken to enter the entity information.

If you already have a registration, you already have a Unique Entity ID (SAM). Just go to the main search to view the UEI (SAM).

Selecting “Register entity” from the previous screen will take users here starting February 5, 2022.

Here you will need to determine your purpose of registration and whether you are bidding on contracts and financial assistance or just financial assistance.

The look is changing but the process remains the same.

Purpose of Registration

An entity within the SAM system includes prime contractors, organizations or individuals applying for assistance awards, those receiving loans, sole proprietors, corporations, partnerships, and any federal government agencies desiring to do business with the government.

What type of entity are you registering?

- Business or Organization
- U.S. State Government
- U.S. Local Government
- Tribal Government
- Foreign Government

Why are you registering this entity to do business with the U.S. government?

- I want to be able to bid on federal contracts or other procurement opportunities. I also want to be able to apply for grants, loans, and other financial assistance programs.
- I only want to apply for federal assistance opportunities like grants, loans, and other financial assistance programs.

You will be able to review you selected purpose of registration and see an outline of the upcoming steps you will need complete based on your purpose of registration.

You will also be shown all the necessary documents or information before you move into the next step of entity registration.

You can decide to change the Purpose of Registration or continue forward.

Change Purpose of Registration

Based on the answers you provided on the previous page, you must complete the following entity registration sections.

Unique Entity ID

All registration types

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit, sed do eiusmod tempor incididunt ut labore et dolore magna aliqua. Ut enim ad minim veniam, quis nostrud exercitation

Core Data

All registration types

Core Data Includes, but is not limited to, an entity's DUNS and/or DoDAAC, name, address, CAGE or NCAGE, code, TIN or EIN numbers, general information, financial information, and details about any proceedings in which the entity may currently be involved.

Assertions

"All Awards" only

Documents self assertions from each entity. Includes, but is not limited to, data about the types of goods and services the entity provides, the entity size, optional Electronic Data Interchange (EDI), and disaster relief data.

FAR and DFARS' Representations & Certifications

"All Awards" only

Documents an entity's representations and certifications related to their small business status, responses to commonly used Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) and Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS) provisions/clauses, and Architect-Engineer Responses (SF330 Part II).

Points of Contact

All registration types

The entity will be asked to provide contact information for any mandatory POC based on the information they provided during the registration process. Includes, but is not limited to, accounts receivable, electronic business, and government business.

If you want to obtain federal contract awards, you must complete all four sections of the registration: Core Data, Assertions, Representations & Certifications (Reps & Certs), and Points of Contact (POCs). This is required by the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) in FAR 52.204-7 System for Award Management.

If you are only interested in federal assistance opportunities, such as grants and loans, you must complete three sections of the registration: Core Data, Representations & Certifications (Reps & Certs), and POCs. If you decide later to pursue federal contract awards, you must update your SAM registration to change your purpose of registration and complete all four sections.

As of February 2, 2019, all entities registering for All Awards or Federal Assistance Only, will be required to review the Financial Assistance Representations and Certifications. These are a common set of certifications and representations required by Federal statutes or regulations in accordance with grants guidance under Title 2 of the Code of Federal Regulations. If you intend to apply for or are a recipient of a Federal grant or agreement, you must agree to the grants certifications and representations in the Representations & Certifications section of your entity registration.
